Young Tax Professional of the Year is an international competition for students who are interested in tax expertise. The YTPY Competition is organized in two steps:

- ▶ Country Level: Students from each country compete in front of a jury of Tax professionals to win their country's title;
- ▶ International Level: Winners of national competitions compete internationally for the final title.

With this competition, we aim at sharing our professionals' tax expertise with the most curious students.

The competition will be a training and development opportunity for all those who want to improve their international tax knowledge

Who can apply for the Italian competition?

- ▶ Undergraduates in the final year of Economics and Law with a strong interest and motivation for the tax area;
- ▶ It's necessary to have successfully passed the tax law exam and to have a fluent level of English language knowledge.

Application deadline: 06/07/2022
